NEXT HOME GAME (After Tonight)

Saturday, February 21 • 7:30pm vs. Reading Royals

2nd Annual Fireworks Extravaganza presented by Cincinnati Bell

Stick around after the game for a mind-blowing INDOOR pyrotechnics display!

Frozen Fury: After taking five of a possible six points this past weekend, the Cyclones are back on the ice at U.S. Bank Arena in hopes of extending the gap between themselves and tonight's opponent - the struggling Evansville IceMen. Matt Macdonald's team has taken six of the seven regular season meetings with three of them being in shutout fashion.

Scouting the IceMen: Al Sims' club has slumped into the basement of the North Division standings with losses in seven consecutive games and nine out of their last ten. As of tonight, they currently sit 17 points out of a potential playoff spot. Despite his dismal -12 rating, Brandon Wong is atop Evansville's scoring leaderboard with 37 points (16g, 21a) in 48 games. Robin Soudek, who is now playing for his third team this year, ranks second on the club with 29 tallies (16g, 13a) in 40 games overall. Rookie goaltender Chris Driedger has been the workhorse in net this season for the IceMen; however, he's been summoned on an emergency basis by the NHL's Ottawa Senators.

About Last Sunday Afternoon vs. Toledo: Frederick Gaudreau potted the game-winning goal as part of a three-point night to lift the Cyclones over the Walleye by a 3-2 final score in front of 3,153 at U.S. Bank Arena. Cincinnati held Toledo to just 22 shots on goal, the Walleye's lowest total in their last six games.

About Last Saturday Night in Indy: Some early offense and great team defense helped the Cyclones take down the Fuel by a 4-1 final score in front of 5,523 at the Indiana Farmers Coliseum. Stephan Vigier, Chris Reed, and Josh McFadden all registered multi-point games for Cincinnati in the big win.

About Friday Night vs. Indy: Mike Duco scored the game-winning goal on the power play at 2:44 of overtime to lift the Fuel over the Cyclones by a 3-2 final score in front of 6,235 at U.S. Bank Arena. Chris Reed and David Pacan each had a pair of points in the defeat.

Head Coach Matt Macdonald

Birthdate:
March 16, 1983

Hometown:
Niagara Falls, Ontario

Coaching Experience:
2014-Present: Cincinnati Cyclones (Head)
2012-2014: Cincinnati Cyclones (Assistant)

More about Coach Macdonald:

Macdonald, a Niagara Falls, Ontario native, makes his Head Coaching debut this season. Since beginning his coaching career in 2012-13, Macdonald has helped contribute to the Cyclones back-to-back Eastern Conference Finals appearances. As a player, he spent parts of three seasons in the Queen City, logging 119 regular season games and 44 points (5 goals, 39 assists). Macdonald also contributed with 14 tallies (5 goals, 9 assists) in 44 Kelly Cup Playoff games and was a member of Cincinnati's first-ever Kelly Cup title in 2008. During that season, he served as an Assistant Captain.

In addition to his ECHL experience, the former defenseman also saw time in the American Hockey League, Central Hockey League, and in Denmark. Collectively, he skated in 385 games as a professional and collected 133 points (30 goals, 103 assists) with 732 career penalty minutes. While playing in Denmark during the 2010-11 campaign, he helped his team capture a Bronze Medal and was a Danish Cup Champion. Prior to going pro, Macdonald was a four-year letter winner at St. Lawrence University, where he amassed 30 points (14 goals, 16 assists) and 131 penalty minutes in 118 career collegiate games.

Macdonald resides in Cincinnati with his wife, Erin, and their one-year-old daughter, Hazel and son, Max.

Macdonald Head Coaching Milestones

First Cyclones Game: 10/18/14 at Toledo
First Cyclones Win: 10/18/14 at Toledo

QUICK HITTERS

Shooting Shutdown: Cincinnati continues to stifle teams in the shots on goal department this year. They are allowing an average of 26.5 shots per game, the second-fewest in the entire ECHL. The Clones haven't allowed their opponent to reach the 30-shot plateau in eight consecutive games.

Career Year: Cyclones defenseman Chris Reed continues to have his best season on his career. He has enjoyed a personal best in goals (7) and remains the second-best scoring rear guard on the Cyclones. Tonight, the former Ohio State Buckeye will tie Dan Eves for sixth on the club's all-time games played list (196).

The First Tells the Tale: When the Clones have dictated the play in the early-going of games, they have been extremely difficult to beat. When leading or tied after 20 minutes, they are a staggering 20-6-1-2.

Notorious VIG: Cyclones rookie forward Stephan Vigier has been a consistent offensive weapon this season. He leads the club with four game-winning goals and ranks fourth on the team in overall points. More impressively, his game-winning goal totals rank tied for second among all ECHL first-year players.

Playing Nice in the North: Contrary to most years, the North Division holds some of the ECHL's least-penalized teams. The Cyclones rank fifth-lowest in average penalty minutes per game (14.21), while Kalamazoo, Indy, and Toledo all rank in the bottom six of the league.

One is Good, Two is Better: Getting the game's first goal is always critical. However, it's been even more important for the Clones to jump ahead 2-0 early in games. They are an impressive 16-7-1 when lighting the lamp before their opponent but are a perfect 15-0 when pulling ahead by two.

Let's Get Social: All throughout the season, follow the Cyclones on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter (@CincyCyclones) for all the latest news, scores, and team updates! You can also follow the Voice of the Cyclones, Nick Brunker, on Twitter as well (@NickBrunker).

Follow the Cyclones Action LIVE: This season, you can catch every second of every game on the Cyclones Radio Network! Listen online at CyclonesHockey.com using your computer or smartphone. You can also watch all the action LIVE on ECHL TV. Never miss out on hockey!
